

What is thy only comfort in life and death?

That I with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who, with His precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil, and so preserves me that without the will of my heavenly Father, not a hair can fall from my head, yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation, and therefore,
by His Holy Spirit,
He also assures me of eternal life,
and makes me sincerely willing and ready, henceforth, to live unto Him.

and the Trinity Christian High School in Hull.*

Clarine was born to Nick W. and Minnie (Brummel) Kooiker on her parents' farm three miles south of Boyden. She grew up on the farm and attended the Capel Township #1 Country School through the eighth grade. After graduating from Western Christian High School in Hull, she enrolled at Northwestern Classical Academy for one year, followed by summer classes at Westmar College in LeMars. At the age of seventeen, she had earned her teaching certificate and began teaching in the Capel Township Country Schools, four years at #6, and one year at #5.

On August 25, 1953, she was united in marriage to Tim R. Kooima, at the Hull Protestant Reformed Church with the Rev. S. Cammenga officiating. They lived in Hull for a short time before moving to Hopewell, Virginia, in the summer of 1954, where Tim finished his military training. The following year, Tim was deployed to Korea, and Clarine and their newborn daughter returned to the Kooiker farm near Boyden. After Tim's honorable discharge in April of 1956, their family moved to a farm place near Doon and later to a farm near Rock Valley. In 1974, they settled on a farm south of Doon, where they remained living until retiring to Hull in 2007. In September of 2020, Clarine became a resident of Whispering Heights in Rock Valley.

Clarine was a long-time member of the Hull Protestant Reformed Church, where she played the organ and taught Sunday School. She had been an active participant in the church's Ladies Aid since 1953 and was part of the Wealth Bible Study. She was also a charter member of the Hull Protestant Reformed Christian School Guild. Clarine loved to spend time with her family and attended their various extracurricular activities, especially those that involved music. She enjoyed the years they spent living on the farm, where she maintained a large vegetable garden and in earlier years, she often made clothes for her young children. She and Tim were blessed to be able to travel together, and in her free time she enjoyed reading and playing the piano.

Survivors include her husband of almost 69 years, Tim, of Hull; two daughters and their husbands, Melinda and Marv Van Maanen, of Doon; and Sharon and John Keizer, of Hull; four sons and their wives, Steve and Rachel Kooima, Glenn and Krista Kooima, Kevin and Joan Kooima, and Mark and Nancy Kooima, all of Hull; 27 grandchildren; 47 great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren; a sister, Johanna Westra, of Hull; two brothers and their wives, Alvin and Sally Kooiker, of Hull; and A. Glenn and Betty Kooiker, of Sheldon; a brother-in-law and his wife, Gary and Joan Kooima, of Hull; a sister-in-law and her husband, Karen and Dennis Gaalswyk, of Cannon Falls, Minnesota; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by an infant granddaughter; three brothers, two in infancy and William Kooiker, and his wife, Joyce; a brother-in-law, Peter Roy Westra; and a sister-in-law and her husband, Elda and Jim Van Maanen.
