

A Tribute To Mom

We couldn't begin,
to count the times
she tolerated our moods,
consoled our heartbreaks & disappointments,
endured our ups and downs,
listened to words
confused by tear
and just simply understood
for no other reason
than because she loved us.

The years hold precious memories,
but most of all they hold growth.
In a way, we grew up together...

Mom is our definition of a special person...

Fantastic... Exceptional... Unique... Enduring!

She filled our lives with happiness and sweet feelings that we will carry in our hearts forever.

Acknowledgements

A friendly smile a casual touch, these are the things that mean so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. God give us the comfort in the form of good Friends.

May his peace be with you, his love never ends.

King Funeral Home of Concord & Pageland

A Service Designed with Your Consideration in Mind

28797 Highway 9
Pageland, South Carolina 29728
(843)672-6033

416 Old Charlotte Road Southwest
Concord, North Carolina 28027
(980)777-8013

www.KINGFUNERALHOMES.com

In Loving MEMORY

Kay Frances Clyburn Mungo

March 12, 1948 - April 29, 2025

Memorial Service

May 3, 2025
3:00 PM

Word of Life Fellowship Church
481 Tec Road, Cheraw, South Carolina 29520

Officiants

Pastor James Redfearn, Jr., Minister Catherine
Redfearn, Officiating

Obituary

Kay Frances Clyburn-Mungo, affectionately known as Kay Frances, left us on the 29th of April 2025, at the age of 77. Born on March 12, 1948, in Chesterfield County, she was a beacon of love and faith throughout her life, touching the hearts of those around her with her selfless and nurturing spirit. Kay Frances passed away peacefully in Pageland, SC, surrounded by the love of her family.

Kay Frances was the cherished wife of Dr. Reverend L.M. Mungo and a devoted mother to her children. She is survived by her loving family, including her sons, Michael Mungo, Leonard Mungo Jr., and Timothy (Renata) Mungo; her daughters, Frances (Ernest) Tedder, Kim (Darrell) Mungo-Edwards, Charity Mungo, Lawanda Mungo, and granddaughter Danielle Mungo, whom she raised as her own daughter, and a host of grandchildren and great grands, and nieces and nephews that she loved dearly. Her legacy also lives on through her siblings, Patricia (Howard) Miller, Kathy (Lynell) Louallen, Diane (Robbie) Tyler, Teresa Sowell, Phyllis Covington, Ricky Clyburn, Tony Sowell, Ron Sowell, Mickey (Rita) McManus, Marty McManus, and Steven (Melissa) Sowell. Kay Frances was preceded in death by her daughter, Caroline Mungo; grandson, Armand Mungo; parents, Christine and Lenson Clyburn; and her siblings, Kenneth Clyburn, Lenson Clyburn Jr., Regina Clyburn, Prescilla Clyburn, Angie Sowell, Gladys McGriff, and Danny McManus.

A proud alumnus of Chesterfield County Schools, Kay Frances was a lifelong learner whose wisdom and guidance were sought by many. Her entrepreneurial spirit led her to own restaurants and a store, but it was her role as a life caregiver that truly defined her. She provided comfort and care with open arms, never hesitating to put the needs of others before her own.

Kay Frances's passions were simple yet profound. She found joy in watching movies, reveling in the stories and characters that came to life on screen. Her love for family time was unmatched; she cherished every moment spent with her loved ones, creating memories that will be treasured forever. Her voice was a vessel of her faith as she sang and listened to gospel music, uplifting the spirits of all who heard her.

Those who knew Kay Frances would describe her as the epitome of selflessness, love, and faith. She lived by the words of Mother Teresa, "Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love." This quote encapsulates the essence of Kay Frances's approach to life—making a monumental impact through acts of kindness, big and small.

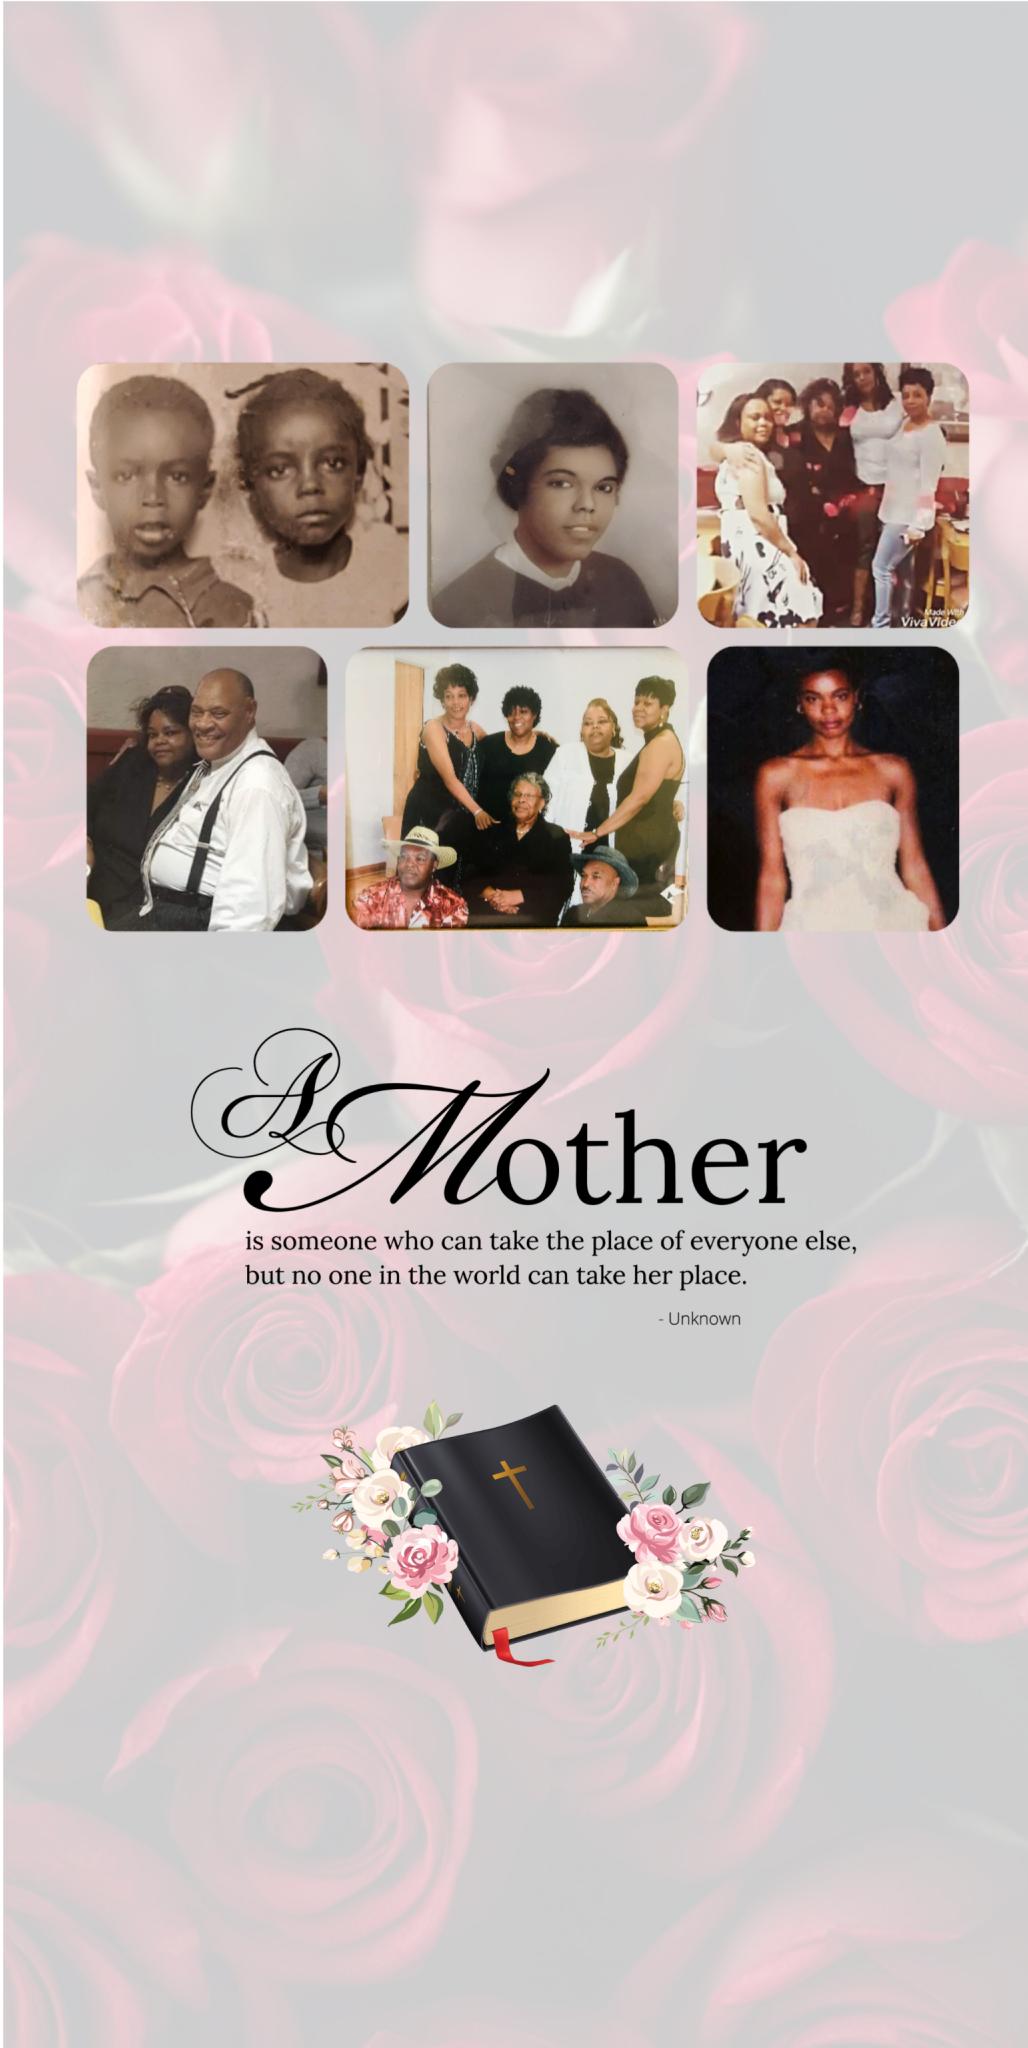

As we bid farewell to Kay Frances Clyburn-Mungo, we do so with heavy hearts filled with gratitude for her enduring presence in our lives. Her legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering faith will continue to inspire and guide us. We find solace in knowing that her spirit will forever be a guiding light, a gentle reminder to live with love and kindness at the forefront of all we do.

Kay Frances's life was a testament to the power of giving, and her memory will be cherished in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her. As we celebrate her remarkable journey, we take comfort in the knowledge that her love will continue to echo in the lives she touched, for generations to come.

Rest in peace, dear Kay Frances. Your life was a precious gift to us all, and your memory will be held in eternal reverence.

Her children wish to express their gratitude to their mother's caregiver, Linda Segars, and her sister, Patricia Miller, for their loving assistance. A special heartfelt thank you is also extended to our sister, Frances Tedder, for the love, support, and steadfast caregiving she has provided for our mother.

From the words of Dr. L.M Mungo, "we have an unbroken bond, and I love you but GOD loves you best, so go on and take your rest!"

Mother

is someone who can take the place of everyone else,
but no one in the world can take her place.

- Unknown

Order of Service

Musical Prelude	Musician
Processional	The Family
Prayer	Min. Catherine Redfearn
Opening Selection	Linda Cokley
Scripture Reading
Old Testament	Min. Marlene Bennett
New Testament	Min. Paul Lewis, Jr.
Prayer of Comfort	Pastor Arlen Ratliff Shady Grove Baptist Church, McBee, S.C.
Solo	LaWanda Mungo
Acknowledgements	King Funeral Home
Obituary	Read Silently A time to reflect and thank God for the life of Kay Frances Clyburn Mungo
Remarks	Timothy Mungo and Rev. L.M. Mungo Please limit remarks to two minutes.
Solo	Dianne Sturdivant
Words of Comfort	Min. Catherine Redfearn
Solo	LaWanda Mungo
Committal
Benediction
Recessional	Clergy, Family & Friends