Mother Sarah Jessie Barrett was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on April 30, 1925, to the late Polly Ann (nee' Woodson) and the late Charlie Jessie. She was the only daughter of her parents' five children. Mother Barrett graduated high school from the Elizabeth, New Jersey School System. After high school, she moved to New York City and on to Waukegan, Illinois, in pursuit of job opportunities. In 1955 while residing in North Chicago, Illinois, she married the late William Frank Barrett, Jr., and to this union three children were born. Mother Barrett eventually settled in Dothan, Alabama in 1966 and began work at Ansell Industrial Division from which she later retired. Following her retirement, she could often be found sitting with the sick or elderly throughout the Dothan area. Mother Barrett had a zeal for serving others. To know her was to love her. She was a woman full of wisdom and often ministered to others of the goodness of The Lord. She particularly held a passion for young people and was ever eager to share her testimony of that memorable day at Allen Temple COGIC that she was "saved and filled with the Holy Ghost" under the leadership of Bishop Harris. After years of faithful service at Allen Temple, she joined Bibleway Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ under the ministerial guidance of her son-in-law Elder James Adams, Jr.,. She later became a member of Oil of Joy Ministry under the leadership of her son Bishop Brian Barrett and served actively until her illness precluded her from doing so. She was preceded in death by her four brothers and one grandchild and one great grandchild. She leaves to cherish her memory: Two sons: William F. Barrett, III (Pamela) of North Chicago, Illinois; and Bishop Brian A. Barrett (Amy) of Dothan, Alabama. Three daughters: Nina J. Dorothy (Dot) Louise Geddie was born September 20, 1935 in Maxton, North Carolina to the late Randall and Annette Hatwood. At the age of nine, she moved to Brooklyn, New York and attended the New York City Public Schools. After graduating from high school, she met the late William H. Geddie and united in holy matrimony. She worked as a secretary for Ideal Toy Company for a few years. Then, she accepted the Lord's charge to provide children with love, discipline, and nurturing by becoming a foster parent. Many would say her love for children was her passion and the reason she maintain such a youthful spirit. Dorothy served as a foster parent for over 25 years. She became a member of Nazarene Baptist Church in 1982. She served as a choir member and missionary. She was known throughout the Bedford-Stuyvesant neighborhood as a "No Nonsense" type of woman. She would let you know what was on her mind. Her children will hold fond memories of famous sayings such as, "It's not what you do, it's how you do it" and "Don't be scared, that's God's work." Dorothy loved the Lord, read her bible daily, and loved gospel music. She also enjoyed watching her favorite soap operas, "The Bold & Beautiful" and "The Young & the Restless." On Monday, March 23, 2015, God called one of his angels to go to her heavenly home. We will miss her so much, but we know that she is in a better place. Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory mother-in-law, Mary Lee Geddie-Williams, six children; William Keith, Sharon L., Darryl E. (Vanessa), Annette R., Duane G. (Stephanie), and Tyrell B., five grandchildren; James Sherod, Lawann (Michael) Powers, Danyel R., Cameron D., and Terrence G., one great grandson, Micah Powers and her cherished nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.
